“Attracting Nature’s Jewels: Hummingbirds”

Saturday, April 13 at Wild Birds Unlimited

In Pontiac next to the Clinton River Trail

Wild Birds Unlimited and Goldner Walsh Garden & Home in Pontiac will help celebrate the 15th Anniversary of the nearby Clinton River Trail at a special presentation Saturday, April 13 at 11 a.m. on “Attracting Nature’s Jewels.” This free event, conducted by LuAnn Linker and Tim Travis, will provide proven tips on attracting Ruby-Throated Hummingbirds and other colorful songbirds to spending spring and summer in area backyards!

To attract attendees, Friends of the Clinton River Trail will provide 15th anniversary trail mix, courtesy of Kar’s Nuts. Wild Birds Unlimited is located at 559 Orchard Lake Road. For directions, visit <http://www.feedwildbirds.com>.

The scenic Clinton River Trail, spanning 16 miles through the five communities of Rochester, Rochester Hills, Auburn Hills, Pontiac and Sylvan Lake in Oakland County, is celebrating its 15th anniversary throughout 2019 with a year-long calendar of recreational and informational events for all ages. The Friends of the Clinton River Trail is encouraging bikers, hikers, walkers, birders, canoeists, kayakers, fishermen and women to take to the trail and learn more about its history and value to the region.

For info on all 15th anniversary events, visit www.clintonrivertrail.org.
